

Equine Wellness Test

Hilda Donahue

"Been excited to receive Al- Marah Speed's (Malone's) customized supplements from Pinpoint Hair Analysis. What a precise way to actually KNOW (Pinpoint !!) exactly what exactly your horse needs .

For all these years I have pretty much played the guessing game along with blood work & trying to read my horse. I highly recommend this method to anyone who wants the best for their horse."

In 2002, Hilda was short-listed for the World Games and in 2004 long listed for the Olympic Games. Hilda represented Ireland at the World Cup Finals in 2002. She has competed at the world's top events, including Burghley (England), Rolex (USA), Pau (France) and Adelaide (Australia). Hilda has been the Area III Leading Rider and has been a Young Rider Selector and trainer for the past several years.

Hilda owns and operates Ashmore Equestrian Center, Inc. which is a full-service eventing facility that focuses on the development and education of horses and riders of all levels.

Hilda is a native of Dublin, Ireland, and her background includes managing Trakehner Horse Farms (a 300-acre center which hosted the Pan Am selection trials and Grand Cypress Equestrian Center (a five-star resort facility).

Philosophy: Hilda is passionate about horses and the world of riding in general. She takes delight in assisting riders of all ages and levels accomplishing their goals. Hilda is also persistent about furthering her understanding of the horse and sharing her knowledge with students. Hilda's philosophy is "it is a sport of years". Hilda enthusiastically professes to teach "anyone who wants to learn!".